Softcore	New Player - I've knocked the ball around at a barbeque - but I've never played in an organized volleyball match or tournament before. Recreational - I played volleyball in gym class back in the day, and a few times since. I know what I'm doing and I'm fairly athletic, but I've never played in an organized volleyball league or tournament
Midcore	B - I've played some high school or club volleyball growing up, but my skills are rusty - or I've played in a few organized leagues and my skills have progressed well beyond a beginner level. I can pass, set, and hit with consistency.
Hardcore	BB - I've played competitively at a high level in the past, and continue to play in leagues and tournaments multiple times a year. I expect my team to run an offense and complete the pass, set, hit sequence on almost every play. I have a position(s) that I generally to play. A (and above) - I have college or advanced club level experience. I participate in other A or higher tournaments and leagues regularly. I am highly skilled - but I am looking for a laid back league experience that emphasizes a coed format and fun over extremely competitive play.
